

Career Decision Making Pre-Assessment

The following are True/False statements about your level of knowledge in the career decision making process.

Please answer each item honestly and we will revisit this assessment at the end of the course.

1. I know what the career decision making process is.

True False

2. Career decision making is a lifelong process.

True False

3. I know assessments that can help me determine my skills.

True False

4. I know assessments that can help me determine my interests.

True False

5. I know assessments that can help me determine my dominant personality traits.

True False

6. I know where to go to get information about careers.

True False

7. I am familiar with ways to experience careers before I commit to a career.

True False

8. I know what college degrees lead to the careers I am interested in.

True False

9. I know what information to collect about a career to help me decide if I am interested in pursuing it.

True False

10. I know what my career options are.

True False